Thunderbird legacy

Building global leaders for over 75 years, Thunderbird's legacy extends worldwide with operations in Geneva, Dubai, Tokyo, Seoul, Nairobi, Jakarta, and nearly 15 other cities.

Why Thunderbird

Thunderbird School of Global Management at Arizona State University is the world's premier institution for global and digital leadership and management education for the Fourth Industrial Revolution, but we are much more than a school.

For over 75 years, Thunderbird has trained a global network of leaders, managers, entrepreneurs, and intrapreneurs across the private and public sectors who advance the School's vision of inclusive, equitable, and sustainable prosperity worldwide.

Mini-United Nations

Thunderbird became the world's first-ever higher education institution to focus exclusively on international leadership by concentrating its curriculum on global management and business skills, international political economy and regional business environments, languages, and cross-cultural communications. Often referred to as a "mini-United Nations" due to its diverse and inclusive global student body, Thunderbird is also renowned worldwide for its elite and highly engaged alumni network of nearly 50,000 global leaders in nearly 150 nations. Over 200,000 executive education participants have enriched their lives through Thunderbird Executive Education.
